Contributions

With the exception of a small federal tax payment of less than 1 percent, all contributions to ACRE Co-op Owners go directly to the campaigns of candidates for political office. About half of all contributions go to support candidates for state office, the other half for federal office.

ACRE follows established procedures for making contributions to candidates running for political office. Factors that determine financial support include a candidate's:

- Position on issues critical to electric co-ops, as well as their votes and public statements on these issues;
- Committee assignments, leadership positions and relative importance to co-op's.
- Financial need and the strength of an opponent.
- The candidate's political affiliation is never taken into account.

A nonpartisan political action committee

Help your cooperative support those local legislators who help improve the quality of life in rural areas.

Your Invitation

As a member of Adams Electric, you are among the more than 42 million Americans who can claim ownership in a not-for-profit, member-owned electric distribution utility. By joining you can support those legislators who support cooperative programs and initiatives.

The cooperative program will be facing many challenges in the coming year, from policy shifts in energy and environmental arenas, to continued pressures on how cooperatives operate. Co-op Owners helps protect these cooperative efforts by connecting us with our legislators as we work to provide safe, reliable power at competitive rates and improve the quality of life in the communities we serve. Maintaining a strong grassroots presence in the political process is critical to the long-term success of electric cooperatives.

We hope you join us!

Contributions to ACRE Co-op Owners for Political Action® are not tax deductible. All contributions to ACRE are voluntary and will be used for political purposes. You may refuse to contribute without reprisal. Contribution guidelines are suggestions only. You may contribute more or less than the recommended amount. Contributions may be stopped at any time upon notification to the cooperative.

What is ACRE®?

ACRE Co-op Owners for Political Action® (Co-op Owners) is a nonpartisan political action committee designed to direct financial contributions from co-op members to those legislators who actively support issues of importance to electric cooperatives. Co-op Owners is a part of the Action Committee for Rural Electrification (ACRE), a political action committee founded by members of the National Rural Electric Cooperative Association (NRECA) that has collected contributions from co-op members across the nation since 1966.

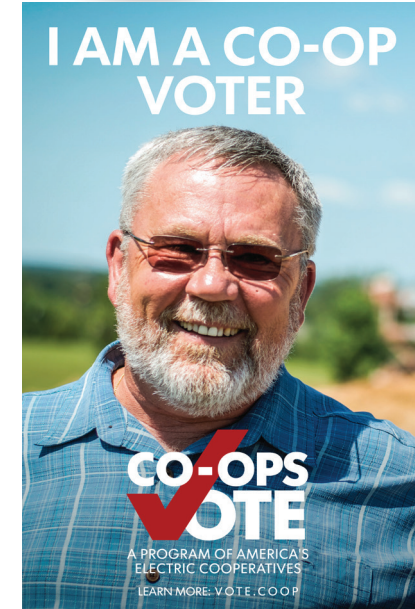

ACRE Co-op Owners supports candidates for state and federal office who will speak for and protect the interests of electric co-ops and their members. ACRE provides a voice for electric cooperatives on all levels of government.
